

Teachers' Notes

Teaching Background Information

- ➔ Arrive Alive is a Highway Code written for young road users.
- ➔ Pupils should be familiar with the Arrive Alive booklet. This is an ideal opportunity for pupils to access Arrive Alive through the Internet.

Suggested Lesson Plan

Aims

- ➔ To further pupils' knowledge of road safety through the use of ICT.

Learning Outcomes

- ➔ Learn and find out more about Arrive Alive, the Highway Code for young road users.

Resources

- ➔ Worksheet C10 – Arrive Alive.
- ➔ Access to computers and the Internet.

Suggested Timing

- ➔ 40 minutes.

Suggested Development of Lesson

- ➔ Arrange pupils in pairs or individually in front of a computer.
- ➔ Explain activity to pupils. Get them to log onto www.hedgehogs.gov.uk
- ➔ Pupils complete Worksheet C10.
- ➔ Teacher could ask the pupils to add this site to favourites, by instructing them to click on 'favourites' and then clicking on 'add to favourites'.

Assessment

- ➔ Have the pupils been able to access specific road safety information in order to answer the set questions?

Curricular Links

- ➔ Information and Communications Technology – Searching and Researching.

Follow-Up/Homework Activities

- ➔ Pupils devise a road safety glossary by logging back onto the website and clicking on all the words written and underlined in blue.
- ➔ Pupils carry out an exploratory session in the Arrive Alive website.
